

Contract Position:
Art Instructor for Summer Camp

Chrysler Museum of Art seeks an Art Instructor to lead and teach its popular summer camp program.

Position Description:

Instructor will plan, lead and teach camp at the Chrysler Museum of Art for its weeklong, full-day art camp program. Instructor will create art-based lesson plans and activities relevant to the Museum's collection and special exhibitions, coordinate procurement of necessary supplies, teach students, and facilitate all activities during camp.

Camp dates/times: Monday, August 7–Friday, August 11, 2017; 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Camper ages: 8–12 years
Location: Chrysler Museum of Art

Instructor's responsibilities will include daily set-up and clean-up of activities as well as organization of the end-of-week art exhibition for campers' families. Instructor will be available to meet with Education Department staff in advance of camp for planning purposes.

Qualifications:

Art Education Certification, classroom experience with children ages 7-12 years, and/or informal art teaching experience (camps, workshops, etc.) preferable. Current background check will be required.
